

Co-Teaching Training for Teaching Partners

Monday, February 6, 2012
and
Tuesday, February 7, 2012
8:00 am - 3:30 pm

Cost: $100 per person (Includes breakfast, lunch and materials)

SB-CEUs (pending): 1.0 offered for attending BOTH days
(There is a $15 processing fee for SB-CEUs)

Presenters: Tammy Schiller, Jen Brown and Sara Hendershot

The focus of this workshop is to introduce Co-Teaching teams to the principles and practices of Co-Teaching as a service delivery model. Participants of this two-day workshop will build their skills and understanding in implementing Co-Teaching as a way to provide a learning environment that encourages and supports the learning of all students in their classrooms.

Co-Teaching partners will work together to examine the following:

1. The definition of and research regarding Co-Teaching
2. The essential components of effective Co-Teaching
3. The stages of relationships
4. Formative assessment of the Co-Teaching partnership

Administrators are strongly encouraged to join their building's teams. On-site visits by coaches are an optional follow-up component of this training.
